

JFK50 KENNEDY NOW

What is the legacy? Beyond controversy and nostalgia, what does the Kennedy Presidency mean today? Issues concerning global conflict resolution, world peace, nuclear arms, political leadership.

A presentation in film and discussion

With Featured Comments by John Shattuck

Rector and President Central European University, former Chief Executive Officer, John F. Kennedy Library Foundation, former Ambassador to the Czech Republic, former Assistant Secretary of State for Democracy, Human Rights and Labor

Screenings from

13 Days (New Line Films)

Virtual JFK: Vietnam if Kennedy Had Lived (Koji Masutani)

Be... Kennedy... Be Khrushchev... (The Armageddon Letters)

Discussants

Sandra Ristovska

Visiting Research Fellow at the Center for Media and Communication Studies at Central European University; documentary filmmaker and a PhD candidate at the Annenberg School for Communication, University of Pennsylvania.

Her research explores the role of video in public discourse and policy deliberations with a particular focus on human rights video advocacy.

Peter Almond

Producer: 13 Days, Virtual JFK...

Consulting Producer: The Armageddon Letters

November 21, 2013

Open Society Archives

Arany János utca 32 / Budapest

4:15 PM Screening

6:15 - 7:00 PM Discussion

Seating Limited
