Researcher's Statement

I. On the fair and lawful use of documents containing personal data in Vera and Donald Blinken Open Society Archives

I, the undersigned, have read and understand the following rules and statements (a. – f.) regarding Vera and Donald Blinken Open Society Archives (OSA).

- a. The principal aim of the OSA is to make its holdings available for research. OSA respects the wishes of donors as well as the international norms concerning informational rights and freedoms.
- b. In the case of public figures or individuals performing public functions, personal data relating to such activities are subject to the main rule of openness. Therefore documents containing such data are freely available to researchers unless otherwise stipulated by the donor.
- c. Restrictions on the accessibility of documents which contain personal data concerning other individuals are given at the discretion of the donor, and OSA presumes that the access status of the documents has been correctly indicated. Therefore OSA itself restricts the availability of documents for research only if releasing them would clearly violate an individual's rights and legal interests.
- d. OSA is not responsible for checking the authenticity, accuracy, completeness and timeliness of data recorded in the documents. I understand that the documents prove only the fact that these data were preserved by the originator, keeper or donor of the documents.
- e. Some of OSA's publicly available material might contain data which could infringe the rights and legal interests of the individuals concerned if publicized or used out of context. I hereby declare that I accept all legal and financial responsibility arising out of, or in connection with, this possible infringement of the rights and legal interests of individuals, and that to the greatest extent permitted by law, I will indemnify and defend OSA from and against all claims, damages, judgments, fines, penalties and costs arising out of, or in connection with, this possible infringement of the rights and legal interests of individuals.
- f. According to the ethical norms of scientific research and to the rules governing rights to information, accessibility does not automatically mean publicity. I declare that I am aware of my special obligation to respect the privacy rights of individuals in any publication of biographical data from unpublished sources contained in the Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty Archives of OSA.

II. On the reproduction of copyrighted and non-copyrighted materials

I, hereby declare that any usage of scanned or photographically reproduced material obtained from the holdings of the OSA will be used solely for non-commercial research and educational purposes in low resolution format. For exceptions to Hungarian and International Copyright Law please consult the applicable legislation. Any additional usage, publication, public projection, screening, performance is subject to permission, please submit request to the Senior Reference Archivist.

III. On the use of Parallel Archive

I acknowledge the effort of Vera and Donald Blinken Open Society Archives (OSA) to grant unlimited access to the file storage system, Parallel Archive (PA), an independently-operated scholarly tool that allows individual researchers to store, manage, and if they want, share their primary sources and archival documents in a web 2.0 environment. I also acknowledge the privilege granted by OSA in allowing researchers an unlimited number of digital reproductions from OSA's collections. In exchange for this privilege, researchers are expected to upload and store images of documents from OSA's collections on Parallel Archive and to make them available to the wider academic public; OSA will monitor this process. Digital reproductions are exclusively for educational and academic purpose as indicated in the Terms of Use.
